

NOW ACCEPTING ADULT STUDENTS!

Cheryl Hall, Piano Instructor

"Her musicianship and versatility in playing the piano inspires me. She customizes the music and lessons to my current skill level while at the same time providing challenges to keep the learning process going. As such, I have more incentive and motivation to practice and play. She is a positive and encouraging teacher."

— John, Medical Facility Owner

"Being a self-employed business owner, time is always pressing. Miss Hall gives me much flexibility that makes it possible for me to progress at my own pace. Moreover, her in-depth musical knowledge makes it a fulfilling experience."

— Fiona, Business Owner and Parent

Have you always wanted to play the piano or pick up where you left off as a child? Do you feel uncomfortable trying to find a teacher that would accept an adult student?

A native of Santa Barbara, Cheryl Hall is a highly qualified piano instructor with over 25 years of experience teaching all ages, specializing in beginning young children and beginning adults.

Working with the Los Angeles Philharmonic and the Los Angeles Music Center for over 13 years, Ms. Hall has served as Director of the Corwin Master Classes, developing a tuition-free program for aspiring young musicians in Los Angeles, Santa Barbara, and throughout Southern California. She sits on the Board of the Los Angeles Philharmonic's Committee of Professional Women, and is an active member of the Music Teachers Association of California.

Her most recent solo recitals have been held at Mayman Hall at The Colburn School of Performing Arts.

Ms. Hall currently maintains a studio in the Los Angeles area and in Santa Barbara at the Music Academy of the West.
